Based on the analysis of people's tweets on the topic "WeRateDogs", here are some conclusions we reached. Firstly, the top 10 popular breeds are golden retriever, labrador retriever, pembroke,chihuahua, pug, toy poodle, chow, samoyed, pomeranian, and malamute, as shown on the right graph. The popularity descends as we move to the right of the graph.

10 most popular breeds

Next, Golden retriever is the most popular breed that people who posted tweets on this topic owned. More than 150 out of 1971 valid posts were related to golden retrievers. A record of more than 7.5% of total posts implied that many people adore golden retrievers. The 10th popular breed malamute accounts for about 2% of total posts.

By looking at the second graph here, we can generate another insight regarding the dog breed according to the data we particularly acquired. These 10 most popular breeds have similar ratings with respect to how much people rated their dogs based on a denominator of 10. All of these breeds have ratings that are more than 10, which is totally fine because of how the system was built with this special feature. However, it is interesting to find that these dog breeds got similar ratings. This image indicates that these people might have a comparable standard when it comes to the rating of their dogs. And almost all of these participants thought of their dogs as lovely to deserve a higher than 10 rating. Of course, these were just data for the top 10 popular dog breeds. The ratings for other breeds might have the possibility of being below 10. Last but not least, from these breeds, pomeranian has the highest rating, which is 12 out of 10. We can
